第19回 共生学コロキウム
THE 19th KYOSEI STUDIES COLLOQUIUM

Planetary Health Engagement Practices and Methodologies

Friday, 4 December 2026 17:00–18:30

Welcome and Introductory Remarks

Junko Otani
The University of Osaka

Presentations

Rebecca Patrick
WHO Collaborating Centre for Climate and Health
Melbourne School of Public Health
Learning across Knowledge Systems for Planetary health

Yu Fukuda
The University of Osaka
Disaster Narratives of coping with suffering

Hannah Morrice
The University of Melbourne
Engaging Decision-Makers in Planetary Health: Leveraging Health Co-Benefits to Influence Policy in Australia

Sunny Nguyen
The University of Melbourne
Learning from child and youth engagement in UN climate policies

Sabyrzhanova Meruyert
The University of Osaka
Report from Kazakhstan: Environmental crisis of the Aral Sea

Discussants

Gergely Mohacsi
The University of Osaka

Sanae Ito
The University of Osaka

THE UNIVERSITY OF OSAKA

Global Knowledge Partners (GKP)
2026 UOsaka-UMelbourne
Joint International Workshop Project

POSTERA CRESCAM LAUDE

Principal Investigators

Prof. Gergely Mohacsi
The University of Osaka

A/Prof. Rebecca Patrick
The University of Melbourne

International Cafe, 1F, Main Building,
Graduate School of Human Sciences, The University of Osaka

Colloquium: No advance registration required.
Reception: 19:00–20:00. Advanced registration is required for reception.

Contact: Prof. Junko Otani (ootani.junko.hus@osaka-u.ac.jp)
Graduate School of Human Sciences,The University of Osaka

UNESCO Chair Global Health & Education THE UNIVERSITY OF OSAKA

Jointly organized by The University of Osaka
UNESCO Chair In Global Health and Education